Article 8: Amendments

Section 1:

The Constitution of NASDJA may be amended at the annual meeting by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting.

Section 2:

Proposed amendments to the constitution may be brought before the annual membership meeting only if previously approved by majority vote, of the NASDJA Board of Directors.

Article 9: NASDJA 'JUNIOR NATIONALS'

(Competitions may vary from year-to-year. The host state and junior committee can add competitions and activities as desired.)

Sponsorship & Eligibility

1. This show is sponsored by the North American South Devon Junior Association (NASDJA) and the North American South Devon Association (NASDA). The show is open to all NASDJA members. Members who turned 22-years-old before January 1, of the year of competition are not eligible.
2. Animals must be registered in the sole ownership of the junior exhibitor 10 days prior to the show, of the year of competition to be eligible to show.
3. Current original registration certificates or copies for each animal must be presented at the time of check-in. Tattoos found to be missing, illegible, or in any way incorrect with official NASDA records will be disqualified.
4. Entries must meet host state health regulations and present interstate health papers at time of check-in.
5. Entry fees are $25 per head. Entries must be postmarked on or before the date specified by the host committee and/or the junior committee, of the year of competition. The deadline for late entries will also be specified and an increased fee of $40 per head will apply.

6. Cattle check-in time will be scheduled by the host committee.
7. Stalls will be assigned to exhibitors according to state. No Fan Cages and No Aisle Fans: An aisle fan is defined as an individual, movable fan placed in the aisle or behind a fitting chute.
8. To maintain a high degree of confidence in the show, the NASDJA reserves the right to disqualify any animals that have been fit or treated in an unethical manner. Unethical fitting includes any injection of gas, solid or liquid under the skin to alter the normal conformation of the animal. This includes any cutting or tearing of the hide, or underneath the hide, or removal of any tissue in an attempt to alter the shape of the animal. Any attempts to disrupt or change normal dental development, dying or coloring of the hair coat that alters the natural coloration or artificial tail or tail head polls will disqualify the animal. Any attempt to change the degree of firmness of any animal is considered unethical. Artificial means that the filling of cattle internally is prohibited.
9. Bedding in the barn and tie-outs will be designated by the host committee.
10. Exhibitors must be present to exhibit their own animals entered in the show; emergencies will be decided on by the NASDJA Board of Directors.
11. All members of the NASDJA in attendance at the Junior Nationals are expected to conduct themselves in a manner becoming an NASDJA member and abide by the on-site directives of the host state. Violations of these standards include, but are not limited to: misrepresentation of animals, vandalism, theft, fighting, unsportsmanlike conduct, failure to comply with the directives of officials, being under the influence of intoxicating or prohibited substances, or willful violation of rules. Failure to adhere to the above regulations may lead to disciplinary actions, which may include expulsion from the event at the discretion of the NASDJA/NASDA staff and/or a disciplinary committee.
12. Classes and division will be broken as proportionately to age and class size as possible, and will be guided by the class break allowances specified in the NASDJA Constitution and Bylaws. Class breaks will be posted at least one day prior to the day of the show and are at the discretion of the NASDA staff.
13. Grievances must be filed with the NASDJA Junior Advisory Board, which consists of the members of the NASDA Junior Committee 24 hours before the show. In any disputes, the decision of the North American South Devon Association Representative and/or the NASDJA Junior Advisory Board will stand.
14. Disclaimer: The North American South Devon Association or anyone else involved with the show will not be responsible for any loss or injury to livestock, feed or persons.

Dress Code

All juniors will be required to dress appropriately.

NASDJA Junior National Show (See Article 6 for a breakdown of classes)

The NASDJA Junior National Female Show will be divided into South Devon Heifers, South Devon Pound Maker Heifers, Bred-and-Owned Heifers and Cow/Calf. The judge will select a champion and reserve champion from each group. Purebred and Pound Maker animals will show separately.

South Devon Heifer Show: Heifers exhibited in the South Devon Heifer Show must be a registered female with 75% or greater South Devon blood to be eligible. No heifers older than a Senior Yearling are eligible to show in this division.

South Devon Pound Maker Heifer Show: Heifers exhibited in the South Devon Pound Maker Heifer Show must be a registered percentage female between 25% and 74.9%. No heifers older than a Senior Yearling are eligible to show in this division.

South Devon Bred-and-Owned Heifer Show: Heifers exhibited in the Bred-and-Owned class must show the exhibitor as owning the entry's dam at the time of conception. The exhibitor must be listed as the breeder on the registration paper. The purebred and Pound Maker bred and owned females will show separately.

Cow/Calf: There is no age limitation on the cow. Cows must be lactating with their natural born calf at side that is under 250 days old. Heifer calves may enter individual heifer classes and Bred-and Owned divisions. Bull calves may be entered in the Bred and Owned Bull Division.

Steers: The NASDJA Steer Show will be divided into two divisions, Pound Maker and purebred steers. Purebred steers must be 75% or greater and Pound Maker steers must be from 25% to 74.9% South Devon. Registration papers are required. There will be two classifications in each of the two divisions: Prospect Division – steers weighing 1,050 lbs. or less; Market division – steers weighing 1,051 lbs. or more. Classes will be broken by weight.

Bred-and-Owned Bull Show: Bulls exhibited in the Bred-and-Owned show must show the exhibitor as owning the entry's dam at the time of conception. The exhibitor must be listed as the breeder on the registration paper. See Article VI for a breakdown of classes.

Premier Breeder & Premier Exhibitor

The NASDJA will present an award to the premier exhibitor and premier breeder of the show. The premier exhibitor will be determined by the exhibitor's placement in individual heifer, cow/calf, steer, and bull classes. Placements will also be used to determine the premier breeder award. Points are accumulated as follows: 1st place – 3 pts.; 2nd place – 2 pts.; 3rd place – 1 pt. Maximum number of placements used to determine the winner shall be limited to three. In the case of a tie, additional placements will be used.

Showmanship Contest

1. Any individual in attendance at the NASDJA Junior National is eligible provided he or she is a member of the NASDJA and complies with the age eligibility for the NASDJA Junior Nationals.
2. Bulls cannot be shown in any showmanship classes.
3. Contestants do not have to show their own animal, but the animal exhibited in the showmanship contest has to be entered in the NASDJA Junior National.
4. Contestants will compete in four divisions: Pee-Wee, Junior, Intermediate and Senior.
 - Pee-Wee: 7 years of age and under as of January 1
 - Junior: 8-12 years of age as of January 1
 - Intermediate: 13-16 years of age as of January 1

- Senior: 17-21 years of age as of January 1
5. All contestants must pre-register at the designated contest sign-in.
 6. Contestants will be judged primarily on their own appearance (neatness) and showmanship ability.
 7. No outside assistance will be allowed during the competition.

Quiz Bowl Competition

1. The primary objective of the Quiz Bowl is to provide the opportunity for National Junior South Devon Association members to demonstrate their knowledge of South Devon beef cattle and the purebred cattle industry.
2. Contestants will compete in four divisions: Pee-Wee, Junior, Intermediate and Senior.
 - Pee-Wee: 7 years of age and under as of January 1
 - Junior: 8-12 years of age as of January 1
 - Intermediate: 13-16 years of age as of January 1
 - Senior: 17-21 years of age as of January 1
3. Contestants will be divided into preliminary rounds depending on the number of individuals in each age category. In each round, the contestant will draw a number to correspond with a question. Each round will have the same questions for all competing individuals.
4. The first round will consist of one, 10 question round. The top two from each match will proceed to the next round.
5. Contestants will have 10 seconds to answer each question.
6. In the case of a tie, three additional questions will be asked.
7. Each question is worth 1 point.
8. There will be two officials who will determine the accuracy of the answers.
9. Members of the NASDA board will help with scoring, moderating and overseeing the contest.

Marketing Contest

1. The main objective of the Marketing contest is to encourage participation while promoting the importance of communication skills, marketing technique and an understanding of performance and pedigree information.
2. Any individual in attendance at the NASDJA Junior National is eligible provided he or she is a member of the NASDJA and complies with the age eligibility for the NASDJA Junior Nationals.
3. There will be four divisions:
Pee Wee: 7 and Under; Junior (8-12); Intermediate (13-16) and Senior (17-21).
4. Contestants must register during the pre-registration period. Individuals may use a heifer, a bull or a cow-calf pair as their entry. If using a cow-calf pair, both the cow and the calf must be marketed. They may also present a marketing concept without using an animal.
5. Presentations will be from 3-6 minutes long. Individuals can present on their own or on a team, (group of 2-3). If presenting as a team each individual will be expected to speak during the time period. The objective of each team or individual entry will be to convince the three judges that they should purchase the team's entry. Three topics should be discussed (in terms of the entry) if using an animal: (a) pedigree information, (b) performance information, (c) visual characteristics. Other information may also be given. Teams and individuals will be discounted for using notes.

6. The order of presentation will be determined by a drawing after pre-registration and will be posted prior to the contest.
7. Each team will be responsible for selecting an animal to use in the competition. Entries to be groomed, but should be clean and will be checked for oil, hair spray, glue, etc., before entering the arena. No grooming supplies will be allowed in the area. Each team must present the entry's registration certificate to the judges. Other visual aids may be used but are optional. Only the entry being marketed may be brought in front of the judges. Other animals may not be used as visual aids. Only live animals may be marketed – no flushes or embryos. If you do not use an animal your presentation must be the same length and communicate a marketing concept to the judging panel. Visual aids may be used.
8. Points will be awarded as follows:
 - Knowledge – 25 points
 - Ability to communicate – 25 points
 - Organization – 25 points
 - Overall effect – 25 points (Salesmanship, Creativity/Originality, Believability)
 - Ten points will be subtracted from the total if judges detect the use of notes. Five points will be subtracted if registration certificates are not submitted. Five points will be subtracted if all three team members do not speak. Two points will be subtracted for each minute a presentation goes over six minutes.
9. Judging will be by a two-member panel of judges based on 100 points maximum from each judge. Each judge will then rank the teams and/or individual based on points allocated. Judges will determine the final placing.

Photography Contest

All participants must be members of the North American South Devon Junior Association. There will be four age divisions: Pee Wee (7 years of age and under as of Jan. 1), Junior (8-12 years of age as of Jan. 1), Intermediate (13-16 years of age as of Jan. 1) and Senior (17-21 years of age as of Jan. 1).

 - Promote the South Devon breed.
 - Promote participation in 'Junior Nationals' and junior activities.
 - Promote the use of a product in beef cattle production.
 - Promote a farm or ranch program.
 - Promote a sale or agricultural event.

Heartland Challenge

The NASDJA Heartland Challenge award promotes individual contest participation. One award will be awarded to the individual with the highest overall score regardless of age. Participants must compete in at least three of the following contests: Marketing, Quiz Bowl, Photo, Speech and Showmanship.

Contestants competing in at least three of the qualifying contests are automatically in contention for the award. In each contest, participants will be ranked through top 3 placings for each age division.

Points will be distributed by the following system 1st-30; 2nd-20; 3rd-10

Golden Pitchfork Award

The Golden Pitchfork award was developed to encourage junior exhibitors to work together in the display of their cattle, as well as to create state pride during the NASDJA Junior National. The award is presented to a state association that displays a combination of cleanliness, uniformity in stalling (such as exhibitor cards, panels, etc.) and additional decoration of the area representing the state. The winning state will receive a cash award and the traveling golden pitchfork to be displayed at the next year's NASDJA Junior National. Cash awards will also be presented to second and third place states.

Evaluation - A panel of judges including one individual from the NASDA Junior Committee, one from the host state and one adult from a past winning state will evaluate the stalls daily throughout the Junior National based upon the point system listed. The point system is:

- Cleanliness/Neatness – 45
- Uniformity of Stalls – 35
- Storage of Feed & Equipment – 10
- Decorations (extra effort) 10
- Total Points 100

The top three states will be announced during the show. Cash awards are: 1st Place: $100, 2nd Place: $50, 3rd Place $25.

Outstanding Junior Herdsman Award

This award is presented annually to one exhibitor during the NASDJA Junior Nationals.

Eligibility Requirements:

All Junior National exhibitors are eligible to receive the award.

An individual may receive the award once.

Selection:

A nomination committee will observe exhibitors throughout the Junior National and nominate three individuals. The nomination committee will consist of one member of the NASDA Junior Committee, one member from the Host Committee and one past Outstanding Junior Herdsman Award winner. If one past winner is not in attendance an additional NASDA Junior Committee member will be selected. Each of the three nominated individuals will receive 10 points. In addition the following point system will be used to determine the Outstanding Junior Herdsman:

Exhibit one or more animals: 10 points

Serve as a Mentor: 10 points

If contestants place in the top two of any of the listed contests including showmanship, marketing, quiz bowl, photo contest, speech contest or any other sponsored competition they will receive points for the following: 1st place: 10 points; 2nd place: 9 points.

In selection, emphasis is placed on the exhibitor's sportsmanship, presentation of show entries, work habits, honesty and knowledge of the South Devon industry.

NASDJA Mentoring Program

The NASDJA mentoring program is an opportunity for junior South Devon members to utilize their experience at the NASDJA Junior Nationals to assist amateur exhibitors at this event. It gives juniors of all ages the opportunity to meet and interact with members from different states.

Mentors: Junior members interested in mentoring must be 14-years of age or older and have attended at least three previous NASDJA Junior Nationals. Mentors must be able to have time to check on their protégés at least once a day.

Protégés: Protégés can be first, second or third-time exhibitors at the Junior National who indicate they would like to have a mentor for the duration of the Junior Nationals.

1. Interested juniors can check the appropriate box at the end of their Junior National entry form.
2. Mentors and protégés will be assigned before the event.
3. Mentors will be assigned to a protégé from a different state.
4. Mentors will be able to find out who their protégés are during sign up.
5. Participants will be recognized at the opening ceremonies.

Guidelines for Mentors:

The importance of this position is to help your protégé feel at home during the Junior Nationals and to help them meet and interact with other juniors.

1. Help your protégé with rules and basic information about the Junior National.
2. Take him or her to any competitions or contests that you may be involved with or you think he or she may be interested in.
3. Introduce him to other juniors.

AGREEMENT OF RESPONSIBILITY AND LIABILITY

It is clearly understood and agreed that the North American South Devon Association and its officials, officers, directors, employees and agents (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Association") shall not be responsible for any damage, loss or injury to any person or property which is caused directly or indirectly for any reason.

The exhibitor, owner, their agents and/or representatives, (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Participants"), agree to indemnify and hold the Association harmless for any damage, injury or loss suffered during or in connection with the NASDJA Junior National. In the event the Association is subject to any expense or liability, including, but not limited to consultant fees, legal or court costs, the Association management labor and expenses, expenses and/or costs for blood, tissue, urine, hide and/or carcass sampling and testing incurred as a result of the Association's rules and regulations violations and all agreements there under, including, but not limited to unethical fitting, filling, meat tampering, illegal or non-approved use of drugs, medication and/or prohibited substance(s) as a result of participants involvement in the NASDJA Junior National, participant shall indemnify and hold harmless the Association for all damage, expenses and liabilities incurred as a result thereof. Participant may also be subject to criminal charges.

The participant will have full control, custody, care and feeding of any animal(s) and/or personal property, which are brought on or about the premises of the NASDJA Junior National. It is clearly understood and agreed between the parties that, as a material condition to any participant entering or showing at the national, regional and NASDJA Junior National. The Association will at no time have control, custody or care of any animal(s) and/or personal property, which are brought on or about the NASDJA Junior National show site. For the overall working of the show, the participant will maintain control, custody, care and feeding for any and all animals and/or personal property in accordance with the rules and regulations of the NASDJA Junior National, and in no way will the Association be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur or be caused by any animal or personal property.

By submitting an application for entry, participants agree to comply with all the rules and regulations governing the NASDJA Junior National as published in the rules governed under the North American South Devon Association rules. Further, these provisions include total ownership of the entry for the prescribed number of days, continuous possession and care and provisions against unethical fitting, filling, and/or alteration of conformation and color of animal(s), meat tampering and illegal or non-approved use of drugs, medication and/or prohibited substance.

All animals competing in the NASDJA Junior National need to be broke and controllable by the junior member. The NASDA show and sale committee reserves the right to disqualify from the NASDJA Junior National any animals determined to be unruly and cause a threat to the safety of any participants. All decisions by the NASDA show and sale committee will be final.
